Students learn the English language while using it
CLIL
(Content and Language Integrated Learning)

Given: selling price = $24, discount = 25% of the marked price
but: (marked price) = (selling price) + discount

Expressing each of these quantities as percentages of the marked price, we have:

marked price

selling price

discount

(100% of the marked price) = (x% of the marked price) + (25% of the marked price)

So the selling price must be: (100-25 = 75)% of the marked price, i.e:

selling price = \frac{75}{100} \times \text{(marked price)}

So:

marked price = \frac{100}{75} \times \text{(selling price)}

\begin{align*}
\text{marked price} &= \frac{100}{75} \times 24 \\
&= \frac{75 \times 24}{75} \\
&= 32
\end{align*}

- The CD usually costs $32, and the cash discount is: (32-24) = $8.00
PHOTOGRAPHY COURSES

Photography courses at school aim to improve the relationship between perception and thought and the ability to observe and to focus on the surrounding environment. They also promote different processes of research and attention to the different expressive photographic forms.
Schooltrips

Strasbourg  Barcelona

Florence  Paris

Venice  London
Over the years students have visited many places of interest in Sardinia in Italy and in Europe and they have developed their knowledge of the world around them. School trips promote students’ intercultural awareness, develop their communicative skills and allow them to visit the main places (towns, monuments, museums) of historical and artistic value and interest.
